

Interval House Awarded $5,000!

Mission: Preventing and breaking the cycle of domestic violence and intimate partner abuse.

Program Funded:

Established in 1971, Interval House is dedicated to ending domestic violence in Connecticut by giving victims a safe, welcoming, and encouraging place to start over. Interval House originally started in a church basement in Hartford. It supports 6,500 people a year at no cost to them. This grant will support the “Victim to Survivor” program and will focus on residents of Farmington.

Organizations like Interval House do amazing and tough work facing one of the most significant challenges in our society today. This program will change the lives of Farmington residents and provide support and safety for victims of violence in their homes.

To learn more about this organization, visit intervalhousect.org.

