

Stanley Whitman House Awarded $7,000!

Mission: A living history center and Museum that teaches through the collection, preservation, research, and dynamic interpretation of the history and culture of 17th- to 19th-Century Farmington, Connecticut

Program Funded:

This grant will help fund the Charlotte Henry Initiative, aiming to explore and highlight the life of Charlotte Henry, a mixed-race Native/African American woman. This collaboration seeks to make the Stanley-Whitman House a vital center for the study of the Tunxis community.

The Charlotte Henry Initiative, aims to reshape how Indigenous cultures and narratives are understood and represented. The project stands as a testament to the rich, intertwined histories that define Connecticut and its diverse peoples.

Stanley-Whitman House is a living history center and museum that teaches through the collection, preservation, research, and dynamic interpretation of the history and culture of early Farmington, Connecticut. To learn more, visit <https://www.s-wh.org>.

